

Dear Prayer Warriors, Worshippers, Speakers, Support churches and Core Team!

WOW, what a Holy Spirit weekend we had in New Jersey. Thank you for your prayers as eleven women traveled together in the rain for the ten hour trip to NJ. And for the person who prayed on Monday morning at 3:00am, one big thank you as the van took a wrong turn up a one way street with a bus heading towards them, waving them down...wrong way!!!! The angels cried out to the heavens, "Send us more help down here for this POM team! We have to get them home!"

We spent most of our time with Marilyn from New Jersey and her family. Her husband made the cross for us and Jackie her daughter attended the retreat with us. Jackie is our newest POM member!!!! :) Thank you Marilyn and family!!!! What wonderful hosts and hostess!

The retreat was totally awesome, women were coming up for prayer on both Friday night and all day on Saturday. Our worship team was outstanding, our speakers took it up to another level as POM was well received by the three churches who were in attendance. We came to encourage and we received encouragement as they prayed prayers over us at the close of the retreat!

And after the retreat, totally surprised, I was asked to give the Sunday message. What a privilege to feel the anointing of the Holy Spirit to be the vessel to carry God's word.

I am so blessed to have such mighty women and men of God giving, praying, and serving with this ministry. It is a fantastic privilege to be a part of such mighty faithful women and men, to know that wherever we go, we not only go to give the love of Jesus away, but we are also blessed by the love of Jesus.

I know this is not the work of one person or several, but the work of many---it takes an army of men and women who are not afraid of the enemy to move into area churches, deliver the message, and watch the Holy Spirit's seed grow in a new and surprising way. It takes an army of individuals who know how to fight this mighty battle and we must do it together!

I am blessed to have each of you serving in this ministry in one form or another. Every person in this army is important because I know the success is often "behind the scenes," in your prayer rooms or praying for a speaker and the worship at the retreat. You each give unselfishly to this ministry and I want you to know I appreciate your unselfishness! Thank you for all your prayer coverage, for all your time serving, singing, and/or speaking as you pass on the love of Jesus.

One says the joy is in the journey! Oh I have to agree. One at the retreat saw women in wedding gowns, beautiful and graceful, but they were carrying machine guns! We know when to pull out the big guns and shoot those little demons out of our way!!!! :)

One prayer intercessor during worship on Sunday saw a mighty rocket ready to launch and she felt it was POM. And in my prayer time on Tuesday, I felt the Lord ask me three times, "will you lead like Deborah?" (One told me when the Lord speaks to you three times about the same thing, one had better listen!) So, finally, I said, "Yes Lord, I will Lead like Deborah, cause I know I will have the Holy Spirit guiding me along the way." I believe the Lord is lining up His army and POM is about ready to take off. And I know it's because of prayer! Thank you!!!!

To those who went to New Jersey, I pray you are rested. I pray the week after the retreat has been a week of peace. (Please continue to keep Ashley and Roz in your prayers, Roz's granddaughter) Thank you all for giving unto the Lord. I know in my heart He has said, "Well done good and faithful servants!"

The next POM will be another road trip to Danville Ky Sept. 9 at a Baptist church. In my prayers this week, I feel the theme will be "The Walk of Faith..." "I AM" a believer!" More to come later...for now, rest and know that God is in control as we move forward, one step at a time walking on water with our Jesus! How can we loose, if we take our eyes off Him, and slip, He reaches down and pulls us back up and sets us back on the water!!!! We just have to keep walking this walk of faith!

Thank you again for giving to Jesus as you serve with this ministry. I love you all,
deb
